Here is a great opportunity for a renovator or tradie! Add value to this charming and unique split level pole home set amongst the trees on an elevated and very private 981m² bush block. Featuring raked limewashed timber ceilings and polished timber floors, the open plan living area spreads out to the upper level timber entertaining deck with its treetop outlook.

On the entry level you will find the main bedroom, open plan living room, entertaining deck and the kitchen complete with servery window. On the upper level are the remaining 2 bedrooms, bathroom, toilet and the laundry. Downstairs is the single drive through lock up garage with roller doors at either end, a great little workshop or open studio and a second deck.

The house could certainly do with some TLC but the bones are good and if a private rainforest retreat in a character home sounds like heaven to you, then it's definitely worth a look.

- Features include:
- Split level home across 3 levels
