Palmwoods properties have experienced enormous interest over the last 2 years with growth of values of over 30% in the past 12 months, and there is no sign of that slowing down in the foreseeable future. Currently renting for $420 per week, the tenants in this property have lived here for the last 6 years, so consideration in the form of affordable rent has been provided to them. If this property was being offered as a fresh tenancy in the current market it would return $485-$500 per week.

For those who don't know Palmwoods, our pretty Hinterland township has a quaint historic village feel. It is rapidly becoming an in demand foodie location with a host of cafes, restaurants and themed dining locations bringing the town centre to life on the weekends. Very much community focussed, it's the kind of place where people will stop for a chat while walking the dog or taking the kids to the park. It's very central for reaching all points of the Coast; be it the beaches, the attractions, walks and national parks of the Hinterland or an assortment of markets, music festival sites and major shopping facilities, even thte airport all being well within a half hour range.

Who knows where prices will sit in the near future with continued growth in the order of a further 20% in the next year. Strike while the iron is hot becasue most properties in the area are now selling above the $800,000 level. Make this one affordably yours!
