Palmwoods has its own special feel, green and leafy with plenty of walking riding and playing options. It's a community, not just a suburb. With an equal mix of older couples and families with children, it has a friendly laid back kind of chill. Some come here for the bigger blocks and others for the "village" feel. You can walk to the park with the dog or kids, school is just a hop step and a jump away, as are the busses to local secondary colleges.

Walk to town for coffee or brunch, lunch at Rick's Garage, Tor a hearty meal at the local country pub are all on the must do list, or commute from the local train station. There are so many dining options in town including Piggy Back, Talking Turket and Chew Chew Bistro, and for those who love to stay active the aquatic centre, tennis and cricket club are all in easy walking distance.

Whikst this home is on a compact 545m2 block, it still enjoys a feel of space and a green and leafy backdrop, there's plenty of room for a kitchen garden for your herbs etc and for the family pet. Just 3 doors away is the local well equipped playground for kids, pets and family gatherings on a larger scale.

If you love the feeling of space but don't want to spend your weekend slaving in an oversize yard this may well be just what you are looking for.
