Beginning with a very appealing street presence, the more you see of this home the more it continues to impress. The welcoming formal entry leads effortlessly to the large open internal living area and onward to its generous covered alfresco. The semi-formal dining room frames a very pretty garden outlook. Higher ceilings and a north east orientation of both the indoor to outdoor living areas and a skylight in the kitchen, make for ample natural light, effectively integrating indoors with the outdoors and gardens.

The central kitchen with its quality appliances, new stone benches, designer splashback, large fridge space and corner pantry, truly is at the heart of the home. European appliances including an induction cooktop, plus a reverse osmosis water filter add to the features of a very functional kitchen.

A very practical, family friendly floor plan means that each of the bedrooms are well separated from the others. The master bedroom is enormous, the 2nd and 3rd bedrooms are a larger than average and the 4th bedroom, whilst a little smaller, makes for a great home office, complete with a built in desk.

The generous working laundry features additional storage and a covered drying area. Exposed aggregate pathways around the house lead to separate garden areas with lots of provision for the gardener who enjoys a space to pot and potter and lots of storage in 3 garden sheds. The north east orientation of the mini orchard make it ideal for growing edibles, all watered from the 5,000Lt rainwater tank.

For the car enthusiast or home mechanic, there is ample storage in the garage, epoxy flooring, both internal and external doors as well as 3 phase power.

Palmwoods State School is just a 1km walk from the house and there are several bus stops for the senior colleges nearby. Walk to nearby waterside parks and playgrounds, or take a stroll into town, about 1.4km for a coffee or breakfast and soak up the friendly Palmwoods Village atmosphere.

For the commuter it's just 8 minutes to the Bruce Highway or even simpler, 2km to the park and ride at Palmwoods Railway Station.

Convenience, space, a nicely appointed home in a quiet private location, what are you waiting for?
