A shady paved patio outside the family room doors could very easily double for the family barbecues area and additional car accommodation by simply adding a roof. The back yard is also well suited to getting big people and little people outdoors with room to play and space for growing veggies, keeping a few chickens or room for the fur kids.

One of the benefits of living in Palmwoods is the great central location, walk 800m to the train station or for the commuter the Bruce Highway is just 5km away. Palmwoods State School is just 3km away and there are a range of State and Private Senior Colleges available to choose from with buses to most available nearby.

Popular Kolora Park, affectionately known as the duck pond, with it's signature train and playground equipment is just 700m up the road, while a range of eateries, outdoor community and musical events and markets are just a 1.2km walk into town. Palmwoods is a great location for people who love an active and healthy lifestyle and is well known for it's friendly and inclusive sense of community.
